What We Are Learning:

Students are encouraged to wear pajamas on this day. We will also have a special treat of hot cocoa and cookies to celebrate The Polar Express.

Language Arts: There is no spelling this week. In grammar we will finish learning about plural nouns and take a quiz. In writing we will finish Grinch writing and start our New Years Resolutions writing.

Math: In math we will work on reviewing 3rd grade skills with a variety of Mystery Crime theme packets.

Social Studies: We will have our Chapter 1 open book quiz on Tuesday. We will read a Scholastic News on Wednesday.

At Home:

Your child should be reading 15 minutes each night and filling in their reading log. Please initial the log each night after reviewing what they have put down to ensure they are reading.

From the Teacher:

I can't believe that we are almost at Winter Break! I want to wish each of you a fabulous Holiday Season and a very Happy New Year!! I know that this time of year can be very hectic, so to help ease the school burden we have decided as a 3rd grade team not to give any homework this week. That way your evenings can be spent running errands and making holiday magic with your family instead of helping solve math equations and practicing spelling lists. I always encourage the children to read, but we will not be sending home and collecting a reading log. On Thursday your child will bring home their Friday folder. Please review their graded work and return the folder to school when break is over in January. Happy Holidays!
