What We Are Learning:

Reading: In reading this week we will be exploring folktales and continue to practice identifying story elements like setting, plot, problem and solution.

Language Arts: Since it's a short week we will not have a spelling list. In grammar we will learn about future-tense verbs. There will be a grammar quiz on Wednesday covering past and future tense verbs. In writing we will finally finish our nonfiction books this week. We will create a fun "selfie" writing product about St. Patrick's Day. We will also work on cursive this week.

Math: We will continue to work on area concepts. There will be a quiz early next week and then we will move into fractions.

Social Studies: We will continue to learn about various landforms this week.

At Home:

Please encourage your child to wear warm clothes or bring a sweater to SE. Our hallways (and sometimes the classroom) can get cold.

From the Teacher:

This week is Read Across America week in honor of Dr. Seuss's birthday. Each day at SE will be themed with something fun.
Tuesday: Wear Stripes or your favorite hat (Cat In the Hat)
Wednesday: Wear wacky socks or two different colors (Fox In Socks)
Thursday: Wear Green (Green Eggs and Ham)
Friday: Wear something WACKY, mismatched, or inside out (Happy Birthday Dr. Seuss)
